

*healing grief
using the creative processes of dialogue, writing and art.*

Rosemary Watkins and Jo'an Parke invite you to join us on this full day workshop in which we will explore dimensions of healing in the grieving process. This will be an experiential workshop with opportunities to use dialogue, to write and to create images that can open the way for moving through the journey of grief.

DATE: Saturday 9th June 2007 (Please call to be informed of future dates)

TIME: 9.00am – 4.00pm

VENUE: William Street Family Therapy Centre,
544 William St Mt Lawley

COST: $100 ($90 concession) A light lunch, tea and coffee will be provided

GROUP SIZE: Maximum of 14

Rosemary Watkins (Family Therapist and member of the Psychotherapists and Counsellor's Association of WA), has worked with families and individuals for many years. A main focus of her work is in the area of loss, grief and trauma.

Jo'an Parke (Art Therapist, Australian Art Therapist Registered) has used writing and art images with groups and individuals to explore issues around the many aspects of grief.

To register please ring Jo'an on 0410 667696 to book your place.

Payment to be forwarded to Jo'an Parke, Bentley Family Therapy Centre, 9 Mills St, Bentley, WA, 6102 by 1st June.

We look forward to meeting you at our Healing Grief Workshop,

Rosemary and Jo'an

